Nancy asked about the possibility of financial support for the new Troy Alateen meeting. They can get the "new group" literature and there are funds available if more support is needed. The group is still waiting to be registered by WSO.

Nancy also mentioned she had been contacted about Al-Anon literature for Antioch College student housing. Again, we do have funds available for that and she will talk with Pam G about getting that literature ordered.

I would like to thank Phil H. and Cheryl L. for representing Al-Anon at the Sinclair Employee Health Fair on September 11, 2019. Phil said we had a GREAT location and got a picture of our display. It's on our website's home page.

We had billboards put up in September, as mentioned previously. These are the locations: Patterson Blvd @ Jefferson St, Wagoner Ford Rd near Neff, 3133 Salem Ave near Hillcrest, 301 E Home Rd near Grubb, Springfield, and 300 Upper Valley Pike, Springfield. Phil brought a picture of the billboard on Home Road.
